

Policy Statement for Students Transferring Three Credits of English Composition

Students who transfer three credits in English Composition to Wilkes from another institution for credit toward our four-credit English 101 may choose either of the following options to fulfill or achieve a “waiver” of the fourth credit hour in Composition:

Option One – Complete a writing course in English: